WASHINGTON WIRELESS.

BOTH HOUSES GETTING READY FOR ADJOURNMENT.

The session will probably last nearly all week—Proceedings of the Senate and House—Conference Committee Report.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Mr. Allison, from the conference committee on the "undry civil bill," reported that the committee had been unable to agree. He said there were certain points on which the conference of the respective houses decided to obtain instructions. The first difficulty related to the appropriation for the coast survey. The house proposed to reduce the appropriation about $100,000 below that of last year, and to reorganize the service; while the senate had amended the bill so as to continue the force as it now exists, but the senate had made a change in the time of the session, and the full force by allowing its reduction from sixty-four to fifty-two, as vacancies occur.

Debate ensued on the other items of difference during which Mr. Beck expressed the hope and belief that, with the spirit of compromise on the part of the senate, an agreement would be reached before long.

Mr. Allison explained the difference on the Yellowstone Park item, and some debate ensued on the part of the senate. Mr. Dawkins advocated the clause for the protection of the park.

Mr. Teller took the ground that if the Yellowstone park were to be kept up, congress should appropriate more than $400,000 a year for it.

Mr. Van Dusen said that to put the park into the hands of the army was simply to throw it open to the public.

After further discussion, the senate insisted on its disagreement to the bill, and a further conference was ordered.

The chair presented the resolution offered Mr. Evans on Saturday night requesting the president to open correspondence with foreign powers on the subject of silver and Mr. Evans addressed the senate. He said the general idea of the delegation from the states represented at the silver conference at Geneva in 1881, to which he was a delegate from the United States, was to have a conference of a year which should be occupied by diplomatic correspondence, and to bringing the governments themselves to a fair and equal statement of what they either would or would not do on the subject; what they would desire to aim at and what not.

Conference Committee Report.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—After working nearly all day yesterday, and two hours this morning, the conference committee on the silver appropriation bill have reported. The great body of amendments are agreed to, but those affecting the public lands, the land service, the question of the occupancy of the pension building in this city, the seizure of the pension building of the supreme court of the United States, the Yellowstone Park, and additional buildings for the government in any manner of this district, were disagreed to, and a further conference was ordered. Some of the disagreements relate to very material matters, and it is believed that they will be disposed of by the next conference.

The senate are becoming impatient to adjourn, congress, and are accusing Messrs. Randall and Holman, of the house committee on appropriations, of delaying the progress of the work by doing so.

The conference committee on the deficiency, river and harbor, and two or three other bills, are at work, and are expected to report some time today.

House.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The speaker laid before the house the bill to increase the naval establishment, and Mr. Herbert, of Alabama, chairman of the committee on naval affairs, moved concurrence in the senate amendments. Messrs. Herbert and Boutwell entered into a controversy on the pension taken by the Democratic and Republican parties upon naval increases.

Mr. Reed moved in the same line, and delivered a general indictment of the Democrats for their failure to pass important pending legislation.

Mr. Reagan defended his side, particularly in reference to later-state commerce. The senate amendments were concurred in, and the bill now goes to the president for approval.

Substitute for the River and Harbor Bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Senator Gibson, of Louisiana, has introduced a joint resolution, which was referred to the committee on commerce, providing that the sum of $12,000,000 be appropriated, to be expended by the secretary of war for the construction, repair and preservation of certain public works on rivers and harbors, and for other purposes. It is intended as a substitute for the regular river and harbor bill.

Cincinnati's Postmaster.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—There was some failure to secure a quorum of the senate committee on postoffices and post roads. It is not at all likely that the nomination of Postmaster William C. Chittenden, postoffice at Riley, for the Cincinnati postoffice, will be acted upon at this session of congress. Chittenden says it will go over until next winter.

Inspecting the Grand Jury.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The grand jury of the general term was sworn in by Judge Cowing, who expressed their attention to the grave charge made against a certain city official, who it was claimed had been corrupt, wicked and willful motives handed over to the grand jury. The grand jury was charged with the active duty, the other being in nominal possession. This statement of the judge is believed to be directed to the alleged deal between Commissioner of Public Works Bquire and Contractor Maurice.

A Destructive Fire.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 3.—A destructive fire broke out at Lafayette, Ind., at 10 o'clock, at a house of about 1000 feet and a number of business houses, private residences and workshops were burned to the ground. A fire engine was sent from the place, but it was too late to do much as the fire was under control when it arrived. The loss was heavy.

ANARCHISTS' TRIALS.

The Mayor of Chicago on the Witness Stand in this Celebrated Case.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—At the Anarchist trial this morning, Mayor Harrison was the first witness called. After the usual examination, he testified that he was the mayor of the city May 1, and was present at the Haymarket meeting on that night. In reply to a question, he stated that the day before there had been a riot at McCormick's factory, and it was said to have grown out of a speech made on the prairie by Spies. Informants reached him, the mayor, during the morning of the issue of a circular of very peculiar character. He called upon the chief of police, and directed him that if anything was said at the meeting that was likely to call for a recurrence of such proceedings as those of McCormick's factory, that it should be dispersed. He continued that he felt it necessary for the safe keeping of the city to have the threatening meetings dispersed.

The mayor arrived at the meeting about 7:35 p. m., and left shortly after 10 o'clock. He heard Spies and Parsons speak throughout the time of the meeting. He reached his home about a mile and a quarter, and was getting ready to retire when he heard the shooting of the bomb. The mayor further stated that he thought Spies observed and recognized him, as the tone of his speech seemed to change suddenly, and that one man came and said to him.

In reply to question the mayor said he should say that Parsons' speech was a very fiery political tirade. He said that the expressions made by the speakers were: "Why this gathering together of the police? Why this display of patrol wagons? Why were our brothers killed?" (McCombs' remark.) The mayor stated that he did not know the exact words of the answer to these questions, but the answer was in the nature of the oppression of the laboring classes.

A HEROIC WOMAN.

After Saving Three Lives She Loses Her Own in Trying to Save the Fourth.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 3.—A Butte, Mont., special to the Pioneer Press says: "A letter from Judge Armstrong on the Upper San River gives the particulars of the death of Miss Jane McArthur, formerly of this city, in a heroic effort to save the lives of others. Miss McArthur, at the time the accident occurred, was on the bank of the San River with her aged mother and two hired men. The men were fishing down the river. Judge Armstrong with his wife, daughter, fifteen and son of twelve and his sister sister attempted to ford the river with a four horse team. Going down the river, the horses came unmanageable and ran into deep water, upsetting the wagon and the family in to the rapid current. Armstrong could not swim and his wife and the other four were left struggling in the water.

Miss McArthur, who was an excellent swimmer, ran to the rescue, throwing off her heavy clothing and, on her knees, plunged into the water, saved the boy and swim ashore with him; then went back and brought the girl ashore, and the wagon party. Though very much exhausted, she swam out again to rescue the sister, who was fifty pounds heavier than herself. The woman was already in the water, and Miss McArthur, seeing her rescuer, resuming at length in both sinking and losing their lives. The bodies were recovered a few hours later. Miss McArthur was a typical Montana girl, and she made a small fortune by her own efforts. She had a herd of 100 cattle, twenty-five horses, two four-wheeled wagons, and a valuable ranch on the San River, near a valuable ranch near Butte. Her body was sent to Bozeman to be buried beside that of her sister.

Sensation at a Funeral.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 3.—Patrick Walsh, a prominent organizer of the Irish National league in all sections of the United States, whose son was secretary of the league was buried here today. The funeral was held at the funeral home of J. J. Gilman, president of the funeral branch in this city, and that arrangements had been made for the funeral by the choir of St. John's cathedral, but that Bishop Gilmore had refused them permission to do so. The statement was received with manifestations of indignation from the Irishmen present, who thought Catholics should be as brave as a dead Catholic and not be afraid to bury a man who had died a martyr. The affair revived a bitterness which had long existed between certain members of the local league and Bishop Gilmore. The cause of the bishop's objection to the funeral was the choir at the funeral is attributed to the fact that the deceased wore a long letter, tending to show St. Patrick, while a Catholic, was not a Roman Catholic.

Symptoms of Cholera.

CHITTEPAU FALLS, Wis., Aug. 3.—Two very sudden deaths within twenty-four hours have caused great excitement here, physicians having pronounced the cases to have well defined symptoms of cholera. A bartender was taken ill at noon and died at 7 o'clock. In the evening a husband and wife died with the same symptoms after an illness of only a few hours. Both men had the symptoms of cholera, and the leading citizens of the place met to consider the situation and to take precautionary measures. Absence of a good sewerage system and the continued dry weather for many days, with a heavy rain have led the city to a very unhealthy condition, and its residents are greatly alarmed.

Frogs Drilling in Cleveland and Ready to Support Governor Fernald.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 3.—Governor Fernald's letter to Secretary Bayard regarding the Reuss affair has been the cause of no little excitement in this city. Saturday afternoon last while a party of young men employed of the Cleveland rolling mill, were indulging in a game of croquet, they were in the right way, a copy of the Press containing the United Press account of the correspondence was read and an animated discussion of the matter ensued. The result was that twenty-five recruits, all of whom are drilling by the captain of a late Cleveland and Hendricks campaign club. Recruits are being taken in to make up the ranks of the state department in this matter and claim that they will support Governor Fernald in his action on the Reuss affair.

STARVING LABRADORIANS.

REPORT OF THE FAMINE AND CANIBALISM UNFOUNDED.

The Governor of Newfoundland's Reply to the London Authorities on the Subject.

ENGLAND'S Interest in the American Silver Dollar—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The reports of saw blockades, famine and cannibalism in Labrador are unfounded, and as is shown by the following official statement to the effect, published in London, from the governor of Newfoundland, in reply to inquiries by the authorities here. The Hudson Bay company, the governor telegraphs, states positively that the company's steamer Alert will not reach Fort Chimo until August 10, and will not take her departure from that place on her return trip before the end of September, making it impossible that news should have been received from the strait.

The strait, the company's officers say, had never been frozen over and the company's vessels bound for Fort Churchill, York Factory and Mealy River, are only now due at the extreme end of the strait. There is no settlement whatever, at Cape Murgiford, which is seventy miles from Hudson Strait, and no Indians live within 90 miles of that place. Native residents of Manitoba who are now staying in London, are entirely convinced that the story originated with persons interested in preventing the construction of a railway to Hudson Bay, which is projected with a view to shortening the route from the Northwest to Europe.

The issue of the legislation provided by Mr. Morrison regarding the standard and functions of silver is avoided here with keen interest. Mr. Henry G. Grant, governor of the Bank of England, writing denouncing the absurd contents of certain English and American papers on the subject of the movement of a new way of testing currency. Mr. Grant frankly declares his belief that the United States government has no intention to put forward in silver a law and that is precisely what India is doing.

Ireland's Delegates to Chicago.

DUBLIN, Aug. 3.—The Fenianite members of parliament with their meeting to be held in this city on Wednesday appoint delegates to represent their tribe in the third annual convention of the Irish National League of America, to be held at Congress hall, Chicago, on August 15 and 16. The meeting will also arrange for the assignment of seats to Mr. W. O'Brien and the other Fenianite candidates for the Southern division of Tyrone and the Southern division of Londonderry, respectively.

Killed in a Prize Fight.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—A prize fight took place at Rhonda, Wales, between two well known prizefighters named Evans and James. Thirty-two rounds were fought, during which both combatants were severely punished. James was declared the winner and Evans was carried from the ring unconscious, with a broken nose and a badly bruised face. He was placed in a carriage and driven to his home, but died from his injuries before reaching there.

A Farewell Address.

DUBLIN, Aug. 3.—On the departure of the Earl of Abernethy from Dublin castle, he was presented with a farewell address by the members of the Irish National League, and his departure and lauding his administration of Irish affairs since his assumption of the office of lord lieutenant. Addresses were also presented by the Lord Mayor, the Lord Chamberlain and the Dublin board of trade and city council.

An Irish Village Destroyed by Fire.

Refused to Ferry.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The Irish Lord Frederick Stanley, secretary for India in the present cabinet, has been refused the passage.

Mr. Jones, the revivalist, feeds the furnace in which burns his oratorical fire with a mild fuel—milk, milk, fruit, lemons and occasionally coffee.

A DIABOLICAL SCHEME.

A Detective Unearths a More Dangerous Weapon Than the Bomb.

BOSTON, Aug. 3.—Superintendent Cornish, of the Pinkerton detective agency, has furnished a local paper a long exposé of the secret workings of the Anarchists in Chicago, which he says have been thoroughly explored by the Pinkerton force. Parsons, Mr. Cornish says, was one of the first to blossom out as a red-hot anarchist. He soon took Spies into his confidence. While in Grief's saloon one night, Cornish heard Mr. Parsons make a violent speech, in which the advocated hurling bombs at the residence of wealthy citizens of Chicago. Spies told him he had a better plan, which was as follows:

"Let every man arm himself with a little syringe just large enough to be concealed in the closed hand. The point of the syringe should be as small and fine as the point of a needle, so that it can easily penetrate clothing and skin. The bulb must be filled with prussic acid. Armed with this you can walk up upon the capitalist to be removed, quickly insert the needle point into his flesh and at the same time squeeze the bulb, sending the deadly acid into his veins. The victim would not mind the attack more than the prick of a pin, but the poison would kill him in a very few minutes, and his death would not be suspected. He would not know, and even if he did, could not tell what had been done to him. This ingenious scheme would be a deadly weapon. It would be approved and applauded by all who were present, including Parsons, Fielden and Dyer. Cornish gives at considerable length the history of the various groups in the city, and the details of their experiments with dynamite.

THE ILL-FATED SCHOONER.

The Captain Gives an Account of the Fatal Catastrophe.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The ill-fated schooner Sarah Craig, which was captured in the terrible gale of Friday night of the 29th, seven of whose passengers were lost, was towed into Brooklyn late last night. As she lay at the dock, in the Erie basin, to-day, she seemed a veritable wreck. The vessel was dismasted, her port side is splintered. Capt. Iuliano, in speaking of critics in the morning papers in reference to his seamanship, said:

"These criticisms are hard and unjust. I did the best thing to do under the circumstances and my conduct was explained by those acquainted with the facts in the case. Just before the squall there was a dead calm, with a light breeze approaching gale, which by the measurement of the government at station at Sandy Hook, blew at the rate of twenty-two miles an hour. The boat had no steering way at the time. When the storm came I put the helm hard down and then ran to help lower the jib. The main sail was standing, and that was the best way of bringing her into the wind—In fact it was the only way."

End of a Steamship Pool.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The agreement entered into last year by the European Continental Steamship company to charge a uniform rate of 65¢ for the coast trip, by its terms last Saturday and will not be renewed. The Red Star line refused to send a representative to the meeting to discuss the representatives called for to-day for the purpose of making a new arrangement, saying that they believed the interests of their company would be better served by their own agreement, and that the Red Star company would regulate its rates to suit its customers. A rate war is believed will ensue between the continental lines. Mr. Underhill, of the Guion line, said that if a war should exist it would not effect the lines plying between New York, London, Boston and Ireland, and that a uniform charge of $30 for stowage passage will be maintained by those lines.

The Galatesa's Arrival.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Aug. 3.—Lieut. and Mrs. Henn, who arrived on the Galatesa, Sunday, were early on deck this morning. They pronounced the scenery of the north shore as not to be surpassed for exquisite beauty. From earliest dawn boats crowded with visitors put off to the Galatesa but none were admitted on board until 10 o'clock. Lieut. Henn and his wife were received by Mr. Butler made a short call and was received cordially. On his return to the America, the latter weighed anchor and passed on to New York. Lieut. Henn told a reporter that he believed Webb would be here tomorrow. Mr. Webb wished him to go to Boston, but he intended to refit right here. The Galatesa will remain here possibly until she goes to New York for her last voyage.

When Vincenzo refused to play any longer Michael stepped in and won the high, near the groin. The injured man was taken to Chambers street hospital and his assistant was arrested by Policeman Wimmer.

Drowned While Bathing.

AKRON, O., Aug. 3.—Edward White, of Kent, O., was drowned at Silver Lake, six miles from the city. He was with two companions, a man and a woman, who were with him in the bath. It is supposed he was taken with cramp and they were not found till three hours later.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

TUESDAY EVENING AUGUST 3, 1886.

We are here to stay.

KENTUCKY has fifteen Republican newspapers.

Some of the Republican nominees repudiated their party and came out at the last moment as "the people's candidate." The sad but true.

We are living under a Democratic administration, and are prospering. Times are better than they were a year ago. During the first six months of this year, there was a few more than 5,100 failures with liabilities amounting to over $50,400,000, as compared with 6,004 failures and liabilities of $74,700,000 for a similar period in last year.

The following are the rates of commission now charged for money orders:

On orders not exceeding $5.....	5 cents.
On orders not exceeding 10.....	8 cents.
On orders not exceeding 15.....	10 cents.
On orders not exceeding 20.....	12 cents.
On orders not exceeding 25.....	15 cents.
On orders not exceeding 30.....	18 cents.
On orders not exceeding 40.....	20 cents.
On orders not exceeding 50.....	25 cents.
On orders not exceeding 60.....	30 cents.
On orders not exceeding 70.....	35 cents.
On orders not exceeding 80.....	40 cents.
On orders not exceeding 100.....	50 cents.

A single money order may include any amount from one cent to one hundred dollars, inclusive, but must not contain a fractional part of a cent.

Affairs are Well Managed.

During the last campaign, the Republican cry was that the country would be ruined, if the Democrats got control of affairs.

The people didn't believe it, and the Democrats have been in power now for about sixteen months.

What is the result? Ruin? No.

During this period of Democratic rule, the Treasury receipts have increased $30,000,000 over those of the last sixteen months of Republican rule.

And that's not all. The expenses of the government for the same period were $15,000,000 less than they were for a similar period under a Republican administration.

Who could ask for a better showing?

It's a total saving of $45,000,000, or a saving of nearly one dollar to each man, woman and child in the United States, a sum almost equal to the amount required under a Democrat administration before the war to run the entire expenses of the Government.

THE LUCKY MAN.

The Holder of Ticket Number 91,875 That Drew the Capital Prize in the Louisiana State Lottery.

Since it was announced that one-fifth of the ticket No. 91,875 was the capital prize in the last drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery was held in our city, excitement has run high. The lucky man is the young book-keeper in the wholesale grocery house of Comer & Trapp, and yesterday he was met with hundreds of congratulations. "When I saw that I was the possessor of the right number my joy knew no bounds. I at once determined to go to New Orleans myself and get the money. This I did. I presented my ticket to the lottery company, received a check on the New Orleans National Bank and secured my money and returned home, via Montgomery. The money, $15,000, is now on deposit in the bank of Cooper & Co. I am still with the house of Comer & Trapp, and have not yet decided as to my course in future." Mr. Jones is an excellent young man, a first-class business fellow and has numerous friends who are gratified at his good fortune. —Anniston, (Ala.) Watchman, July 22.

CAPTAIN J. W. WILLIAMSON'S LUCK AGAIN.

As there have been various rumors, etc., about Captain J. W. Williamson drawing $15,000 in the Louisiana State Lottery, we again accented the good-natured Captain on the subject while on our streets last Saturday. The Captain is a prosperous farmer of Willow Grove, this county, and before the June drawing of this well known lottery, something seemed to tell him that he should make a small investment which he did by handing Johnny Roedel, the clerk of the steamer Valley Belle, a couple of dollars with instructions as above—not knowing any other living man in the transaction. When Roedel got to Middleport, Ohio, he added three dollars to the above amount and forwarded it to the company and in due time received five tickets, two of which he handed to Captain Williamson, one of these being No. 18,145, which entitled him to one-tenth of the capital prize of $150,000, and which amount he has received through the Bank of Ravenswood, W. Va., from M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.—Ravenswood (W. Va.) News, July 21.

Among the wedding presents of a Kentucky editor was a pocketbook. He is said to have taken a friend aside to ask him what the blessed thing was used for.

OUT OF WORK.

For That Reason William Morris Put a Bullet in His Heart.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 3.—For the past three months William Morris, a painter, residing with his family at Court street and Central avenue, has been out of work. With every day's ill success at obtaining work, Morris grew more despondent and morose. His illness spread on his mind until he became almost frantic. The culmination came this morning at 7 o'clock, when he seized his revolver and fired a bullet into his breast. The wounded man was removed to the hospital, where it was found that the bullet had entered the left breast precisely at the point of the nipple. From all indications the wound is fatal. Morris is a German by birth and sixty years of age. His family consists of a wife and two daughters. Both of the latter are grown, one being married.

—Apakona, Liquor Dealers Retaliate.

WAPAKONA, O., Aug. 3.—The question of what is a proper observance of the Sabbath day, which has received considerable agitation here of late, through several infelicitous attempts of the saloon men to induce the town council to pass a Sunday opening ordinance, came to the front again by the action of the Liquor Dealers Protective league, in serving notices upon the hotels, taverns, cigar stores, restaurants and all other places of business to keep closed or be prosecuted. The liquor men say that they intend to strictly enforce the law against the performance of common labor on Sunday, and it remains to be seen what success they will have.

The Mexican Revolution.

BROWNSVILLE, TEX., Aug. 3.—The organ of the revolution, published here, says: "From various sources we learn that Lieut. Col. Amado Salinas yesterday occupied Burgos, and Lieut. Col. Pedro Davila entered the town of Cruces, both at the head of respectable forces. At Lelera, San Carlos and Santa Barbara have appeared new parties of revolutionists. Late last night the officers in deposit left Matamoros for the front, because there are no troops to oppose the rebels, who each day are stronger and more numerous. Diaz and Gonzalez, bacille and placebo, if you don't care to ascend the steps of a gibbet, pack your trunks."

A Gas Explosion.

ENNA, Pa., Aug. 3.—A frightful gas explosion occurred at Enna, Pa., last night. Mr. Edward F. Kingsley and his son John, aged ten years, while passing a new gas well in course of drilling, stopped to examine it. As they opened the door the lantern which Mr. Kingsley carried, ignited the gas and a terrific explosion occurred. The derrick was torn to pieces and Mr. Kingsley and his son covered with flames. Their cries attracted the attention of neighbors who found both almost roasted to death and insensible. They cannot live and their dissolution is hourly expected.

Woman Suffrage in New York.

A Question

Often asked, but seldom answered satisfactorily: "Is there a remedy known to the medical profession that will aid the suffering peculiar to women who are subject to Dysmenorrhea and its attendant disorders?"

Ladies

If you have not tried it, do so AT ONCE. There is relief for you; it has been found in

Tongaline

Read what an eminent physician has to say upon

"I have derived particularly gratifying results from the use of Tongaline in cases of Dysmenorrhea. In the case of a lady of delicate constitution, and a chronic sufferer from this disease, who had been distressed almost every month by the monthly sufferings, its action has been most satisfactory. It relieves her promptly, and in a few days the condition of the system is restored to its normal state. I could mention other instances of a similar character, but this is a remarkable case." T. VICTORY

Perches Upon the Democratic Banner.

The Nominees All Elected by Handsome Majorities—Kickers Get Left, but Leave Evidence of Mean Work.

"WE ARE HERE TO STAY."

The election in this county yesterday was one of the quietest ever held. No disturbance, whatever, have been reported. If any bad feeling prevailed it was manifested alone by the votes cast. Some "kicking" and "scratching" was done by a few of the defeated, but the Democratic ticket went through by handsome majorities. The Republicans centered their strength and made a determined fight for three or four of the county offices. They did their best, but met with their usual fate. Complete returns are not yet in. Below we give the vote, where any contest was made on the county ticket:

A Former Citizen Meets With An Accident.

The Plateburg (Mo.) Register, of a recent date, gives the following account of a serious accident which recently befell a former citizen of this county. The party referred to is a son of Mr. Abner Hord, Sr., of the Lewisburg precinct. The Register says: "Mr. Mason Hord, one of our dry goods merchants, and by the way, one of the most estimable old gentlemen of which our city can boast, met with a serious accident last Friday morning. As is well known to many of our readers, Mr. Hord has had a stiff leg for 10, these many years, and in passing out from his store building on Maple street, the heel of the stiff leg caught on the door sill and threw him forward down two steps on to the stone pavement, the knee of the crippled limb striking first. He was taken up and carried to his residence and Dr. C. W. Spencer, the family physician, was called in as it was supposed, to reduce a fracture, as all seemed to think the leg was broken. It turned out that the ligament about the knee joint, was broken loose, and the knee badly bruised, but the bones were not fractured. The injuries were dressed and properly cared for and we are glad to note that he has been resting quite as well as could be expected. The injury is a severe one and it will be perhaps a number of months before he will be able to be out again."

ANOTHER BELFAST RIOT.

THE POLICE POWERLESS TO QUELL THE DISTURBANCE.

The Militia Called Out, and After Desperate Fighting Quiet is Restored—Guns Loaded With Buckshot Brought Into Use—Buildings Wrecked and Gutted.

BELFAST, Aug. 8.—The riotous spirit which has been at high pitch in Belfast for many weeks again manifested itself on Saturday night. A band of music marched through the streets about 1 o'clock on its way to meet several hundred children belonging to Protestant Sunday-schools, who were returning from an excursion. The band was followed by a large crowd which greeted an assemblage of Catholics who were waiting on Carrick, till to the use of the procession, with a series of stones, and the crowd, but the number of Orangemen rapidly increased, and forced the Catholics from the street. They then turned their attention to the big towers, which by a Catholic mob had been completely gutted, leaving not a pane of glass unbroken nor an article of furniture intact. The police, who were charged upon the rioters, but were in every case repulsed by showers of stones, and many of them were severely hurt.

Leaving McKinnon's hotel a wreck, the rioters attacked a number of houses believed to be inhabited by Catholics, battering down doors, smashing windows and setting up fences and shrubbery. The police again charged the crowd, but the mob tore up the pavements and hurled volleys after volleys of stones thus obtained at the officers, driving them from the scene. The police rallied and were ordered to fire into the mob, which they did with guns loaded with buckshot. The rioters then fell back sullenly, displaying the fact that many of them had been hit and some seriously wounded.

The police followed up their advantage, although they did not fire again, and drove the rioters from the ground, compelling them gradually to disperse. A boy named Knox, who was going on an errand, was shot dead, but none of the rioters were killed.

Quiet reigned for the remainder of the night, but the rioters made their reappearance on the streets at an early hour Sunday morning, congregating about the corners and their numbers gradually increasing. They finally became so formidable that the police ordered them away, when they again attacked the officers with stones. The police poured a volley of buckshot into the crowd, wounding a large number of them, but this only had the effect to enrage the mob and they threw themselves upon the police with desperate fury. While a hand-to-hand fight was going on between the police and a portion of the mob, another and larger detachment of the rioters devoted themselves to wrecking buildings occupied by Catholics.

In this occupation, as well as that of waging battles against the police, the mob was rudely and effectively interrupted by the arrival of the military, whose appearance on the scene was a signal for a general stampede. The military pursued the crowd, and with the assistance of the police, killed a party of six of the rioters, who were put in jail. The police fought with terrific bravery and at fearful odds, scarcely one engaged in the fight, receiving injury. Many of them were cut with knives and pieces of glass in the hands of the rioters, and some of them were almost entirely surrounded by the mob. The police and a strong force of cavalry are now patrolling the streets.

MISS ROSE CLEVELAND'S PAPER.

Her Articles in the August Number of Literary Life.

LITERARY LIFE, of which Miss Cleveland is editor, contains four articles from her pen, the titles being "East and West," "Among the Quakers," "Studies of Deane and Oakes," and "The Antislavery Cause." The article entitled "East and West" Miss Cleveland says: "I have been a good deal amused at some talk I have heard and read concerning the east and the west. One would think that each was a continent, and that a sea divided them. I confess I do not appreciate this sense of separating the east from the west, for my sister and an older sister. Nobody will deny that the older sister had the start, and possesses all the advantages that belong to the one who has outgrown the years and experience. As will no one deny that the west has the advantages that go with freshness in the race, the energy of unwarmed faculties.

"No one will deny that these respective qualities are advantages, nor try to construe either into drawbacks. No one will dispute the right of sister east or sister west who prefer her own advantage, but every fair-minded person will dispute the right of either to assert that her advantage constitutes superiority. No one will pretend to assume because a person falls in love with one of two sisters that therefore those sisters are rivals. And if a person fall in love with the younger rather than the older of the two sisters, every body has a right to say it is strange he could not see how much superior the older sister would have made him. How much more desirable a union with one nearer his own age than the other, than with 'there is no foot like the old foot' etc. All of which, if you come to think it over, proves nothing."

Chicago's Bomb Industry.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—A member of the firm of Gifford & Mahon on entering his store on West Erie street this morning found on the floor, ten feet from the door, a large dynamite bomb. The bomb had been lighted, and in falling it had struck on the end and put out the fire. In appearance this bomb shows better workmanship than any others yet found. It is composed of about a foot of highly polished brass pipe an inch in diameter. At one end is a wooden plug, into which is driven a number of tempered nails. Arrows from this end are wrapped several thicknesses of oil soaked flannel. In the other end is the fuse, which is discarded from the application of the match. The first cannot account for the attempt to destroy their place.

Destructive Fire.

St. Louis, Aug. 8.—The National stock yards at East St. Louis are burning, and the fire is spreading, with likelihood that the entire yards will be burned.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Topics of the Times Given in a terse and spicy manner.

Samuel Irving, a prominent merchant of Fostoria, O., is dead.

It is now thought that congress will adjourn next Thursday—perhaps.

Mrs. Cleveland joined the First Presbyterian church at Washington Sunday.

Among the attractions of the Latonia (Ky.) fair will be a race of deer-hounds and grayhounds on the track.

One John C. Hildreth, secretary for governor of Georgia will not be opposed by the independent or Republicans.

Near Joplin, Mo., R. O. Sanders was murdered by R. J. Brown, who was accused of stealing Sanders' harvest.

There is a prospect of the removal of the Ohio & Mississippi railway machine and repair shops from Cochran to Washington, Ind.

A carpenter repairing an old house near Youngstown, O., found hidden in the cellar wall a tin can filled with $2,000 in American gold coins.

It is feared that should the two houses of congress agree to a conference report on the river and harbor bill, the president will refuse to sign it.

Recent developments warrant the conclusion that Fred Auld, of Cincinnati, was murdered at Fostoria, Ohio, Boone county, Kentucky, Sunday, July 12. His body has been found in the river.

The report of R. T. Williams, export agent, who has examined the accounts of the clerk of the police court of Cincinnati, shows some irregularities, but only a trifling discrepancy.

Fully one-third of the counties of Illinois, Missouri and Kansas report that corn, while showing the effects of the drought, has not been so much injured, and will make a fine yield if rain should come in time.

Severe trouble among the Hocking Valley miners is apprehended. There is a scheme to have up the mines at "Hocking" at Akron, where machinery is employed. Anarchists have been in the valley teaching their doctrines.

Sam Jones and Sam Small, evangelists, did not appear at the Loveland camp meeting, Sunday. They arrived late in Cincinnati, and did not report at the grounds, supposing they would be barred out by the Sunday-closing laws.

The gates of the Loveland camp were closed Sunday, but the crowd outside broke down the fence and entered over the grounds. The first to get over was a prominent preacher's son, who scaled the high barbed-wire fence by the side of the gate.

In a row at Lake Marquette, Ind., between the railroad cars of several excursion trains, a brakeman named McGuire struck a woman named Louisa, and in falling she struck a rail and broke his neck. McGuire received fatal injuries by being struck on the head by a club by Conductor Taylor. Several others were injured, but their names were not learned.

Runover Railroad Sale.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—It was reported that the Union Pacific had purchased the Oregon River & Navigation company, which sale was accomplished last Wednesday and this fact accounts for the delay in the annual election of officers. An officer of the Northern Pacific railroad said that he had heard nothing about such a sale. The Northern Pacific has a lease of the Oregon line from Union to Fort Hall. If any sale had been made it would be subject to this lease. This officer said the sale was inexplicable to him and failed to see the advantage to the Union Pacific.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—For the Ohio Valley: Generally fair weather, northerly winds, stationary temperature.
